Vanuatu Brewing Ltd, is the proud producers of Vanuatu's locally brewed Tusker beer since 1990 and we are looking for a professional, hardworking and highly motivated individual to join our Team.

Production Technician (Brewery)

About the Role

We are looking for a motivated and hands-on Production Technician to join our brewery team in Port Vila. This role is ideal for someone with basic mechanical and electrical knowledge who enjoys working in a fast-paced production environment. You will be involved in operating and supporting high-speed bottling lines while ensuring smooth production and performing first-level maintenance tasks.

Key Responsibilities

- Operate and monitor bottling line equipment in a high-speed production environment
- Ensure efficient and continuous production while maintaining product quality
- Perform first-level maintenance (basic troubleshooting, adjustments, cleaning, and inspections)
- Identify and report technical issues or abnormalities promptly
- Support production changeovers and line setup when required
- Follow hygiene, safety, and quality standards at all times
- Maintain cleanliness and organization of the work area
- Work collaboratively with production and maintenance teams
- Adapt to different shift schedules based on production needs

Profile

- Technical background with basic knowledge in mechanics and electricity
- Comfortable working in a fast-paced, high-volume production environment
- Reactive, attentive, and solution-oriented
- Strong respect for procedures and safety rules
- Team player with good communication skills
- Willingness to work flexible hours, including shift work
