

VANUATU NATIONAL AUDIT OFFICE
BUREAU DU CONTROLEUR GENERAL
DES COMPTES DE VANUATU

Vacancy Advertisement

Job title:	Technical Advisor (T.A), Strategy Development
Location:	Port Vila, Vanuatu and home based
Duration:	2 Calendar months
Start date:	15 th June 2021 to 15 th August 2021
Public entity:	The Vanuatu Office of the Auditor-General (VOAG) is the Supreme Audit Institution (SAI) for the Republic of Vanuatu. The VOAG is the key Government Institution established to promote transparency and accountability in governance to Parliament.
Background:	The mandate of the Office of the Auditor General is to audit the Government of the Republic of Vanuatu, the Constitutional entities, the Statutory bodies, the State-owned Enterprises and all public monies given to or managed by persons or organizations. Since implementing the current strategic plan (2017 – 2021), there have been significant changes and developments. These developments include the development of a new Audit bill (that is yet to get Parliamentary accent), implementation of new salary scales for public officials, completion of the assessment of Performance Management Framework of the Office of the Auditor General by experts from the Pacific Association of Supreme Audit Institutions (PASAI) using the INTOSAI Development Initiative (IDI) Performance Management Framework, and the completion of the Capacity Development Assessment by the Public Service Commission. To ensure the next strategic plan for VNAO (2022 – 2025) effectively captures all these developments and changes while aligning it (2022 – 2025 plan) with the Vanuatu 2030 Plan – the People’s plan, the T.A. is requested to assist the OAG develop its next four years (2022 – 2025) strategic plan. Audit
Placement objectives:	The objectives of the assignment are to assist the Office of the Auditor General develop the 2022 to 2025 strategic plan of the Office and include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">a) Outline the strategy for achieving the vision, mission, strategic objectives and KRAs of the organization;b) Provide the OAG with the Results and Resources (including Human resource) framework for implementing the 2022 to 2025 strategic plan; andc) Submit to the Auditor General, within agreed timeframe, the 2022 – 2025 strategic plan.
Application:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">a) Applications must be clearly marked with the title of the ‘Technical Advisor, Strategic Management’ and submitted by 5pm, 15th Mayl 2021.b) Interested applicants must submit in one single PDF document, the following documents/information:<ul style="list-style-type: none">1) Completed and signed letter of confirmation of interest and availability,2) Personal Curriculum vitae outlining experience, qualification and demonstrated ability and understanding of similar engagements and similar institutions, and

	3) Financial proposal that includes the all-inclusive fixed total contract price, supported by a breakdown of costs as per outputs stated on the Terms of Reference. c) All applications are to be submitted in French or English. d) Submit all applications and queries to: Caleb Sandy, Auditor-General csandy@vanuatu.gov.vu and cc Shirley Manaroto smanaroto@vanuatu.gov.vu
Terms of reference:	The 'Terms of Reference' for this engagement can be collected from the Vanuatu National Audit office and it is to be read in conjunction with this summary.

Caleb Sandy
Auditor-General